An opportunity to learn and grow with others in service of the ministry

This ministry formation program is offered to those interested in greater roles in mission integration, who are open to engaging with a broad group of participants from various organizations. Participants will increase their competence and confidence to integrate mission and values into all aspects of Catholic ministry. The opportunity to learn from and network with others will provide a robust ministry formation experience from which to learn and grow.

New for 2019: A special cohort with small groups from select organizations will be led by Bridget Deegan-Krause and Beth McPherson, founders and creators of the award-winning Mission: Day by Day.
